

Automate your consolidation

The FCC Consolidator business solution is an effective and tested automated financial consolidation platform. The platform can be tailored to your company needs and unique business rules whilst focusing on the quality, control and accessibility of your company's huge amounts of data. FCC is a secure consolidation platform, which ensures the optimisation of financial processes and creates transparency of all your critical business data across the company.

Enhance financial consolidation through automation and structure

Less person dependency

Built on Microsoft's well-known platform

Agile and innovative business solution

Accurate and valuable data with less faults

Key benefits

- Automated near real-time data flows
- Option to have multiple data sources within one analytic model
- Transparency across the whole organisation
- Elimination of manual errors through automated data retrieval
- Data becomes structured and business logic becomes automated
- Automated consolidation rules such as intercompany elimination
- Automatic currency conversion